“Thirteen people denounced by the far-right political party Vox for protesting against their information points”

VIOLATED RIGHT

Right to freedom of expression & Right to peaceful assembly

DESCRIPTION OF THE INCIDENT

The neighbours of Vallecas (Madrid) explain that there were no aggressions and they wonder how Vox (far-right political party) got their names. The protests took place on 17th March 2019, when many neighbours went out to protest spontaneously with casseroles, singing: “fascists, get out from our neighborhoods”. The far-right political party Vox accused the neighbours for “Hate crime”.

"Disproportionate use of force by the Mossos d'Esquadra in an eviction of a 93-year-old man in Sants"

Right to peaceful assembly & Right to physical, psychic and moral integrity

DESCRIPTION OF THE INCIDENT

Disproportionate use of force by the Mossos d'Esquadra (Catalan Police) in an eviction of a 93-year-old man in Sants (Barcelona). Tens of activists and residents of the neighbourhood have avoided the eviction sitting in front of the door (nonviolent resistance) in front of the principal door of the building. However, during the protest some police agents pushed and dragged the activists who were peacefully protesting against the eviction without any reason and did not have a visible Police Operational Number (NOP).

"8,000 € fine to an activist during the taxi strike"

Right to peaceful assembly

DESCRIPTION OF THE INCIDENT

The Generalitat of Catalonia fines with 8,000 euros an activist of Labor rights because of the strikes and actions related with the Taxis' sector on January 2019 when many roads where blocked in the city of Barcelona. According to the administration, the mobilizations called by the taxi drivers "had not been previously communicated". The file details seven acts of denunciation of the Mossos d'Esquadra, one of the Port Police and one of the Guardia Civil. It is detailed in this file that the activist ""present himself" to the agents as "organizer and responsible" for the mobilizations.
